PLANS PROGRESS FOR BIG PAGEANT

Many Details Cleared Up for Presenting "The Cross Triumphant."

MRS. MARIE MOORE FORREST.

Preparations for the production of "The Cross Triumphant," which is to be given on Friday, May 5, at St.
Hilda's Woodland Theater, in the Cathedral Close, are rapidly approaching completion. It was announced yesterday, all committees being busy cleaning up details and all groups rehearsing under the direction of Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest and her staff of assistants.

A committee has been organized, with Mrs. Henry Russell Talbot as chairman, to handle the sale of tickets with a representative from every large parish in the Washington diocese, including Mrs. Charles W. Crawford, Miss Julia McCharr, Mrs. H. E. C. Bryant, Miss Ethel Grimes, Dr. George T. Sharp, Mrs. R.
J. Earnshaw, Mrs. Corbin Birch, Mrs.
George E. Duane, Mrs. G. L. Johnson, Mrs. Leland Stanford Conness, Miss Anna Abbott, Mrs. O. B. Zantinger, Miss Mary R. Latimer, Miss Smith, Mrs. Baker, and Mrs. Henry W. Fitch.
The committee has made arrangements to place tickets on sale in a number of the leading hotels for the convenience of the public.

Mrs. Roberts Hinchart in charge.
The sale of boxes is in charge of a committee of which Mrs. Mary Roberts Hinchart is chairman, with headquarters at Mason House.
The interesting collection of posters assembled and exhibited during the past week at St. John's Parish House will be distributed throughout the city tomorrow for use in various churches and societies. The posters were painted especially for the pageant and each one is an original conception of the triumphant cross by some one of the artists or art students of Washington, among them Lucien Powell, Mrs. L. M. Stebbins, Mrs. Minnigerode Andrews, Miss Dorothy Trout, Norman Moore, the art class of the Potomac High School, and the National Cathedral School for Girls.

Numbers of pageant talks are being held in the churches, schools and clubs in the city, and Commander C.
T. Weaver and the speakers committee, including Mrs. Albert Mills, Mrs. Carey H. Brown, Mrs. Andrews and Dr. Larkin W. Glazebrook, have a full schedule of meetings ahead, not only in Washington, but in churches in Maryland and Virginia.

Hold, Bells, Rehearsals.

Mrs. Forrest, director of the pageant, is holding daily rehearsals of the many groups forming the various scenes, assisted by Mrs. Albert N.
Baker and the sponsors and chairmen, among whom are included Mrs.
James Carroll Frazier, Mrs. Burton L. French, Mrs. Lutz Anderson, Mrs.
Sincclair Bowen, for Lady Geddes; Mrs.
Rose C. Hoes, Mrs. Goldsborough Adams, Mrs. Grouitch, Mrs. Robert Bell, for Mrs. Coollidge; Mrs. Henry Wilder Keyes, Miss Katherine Judge, Mrs. Thome J. Reed, Mrs. Elsie Lee, Mr. Paul Bleyden, for Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, and Mrs. Alfred Thom.
Mrs. Glime, Mrs. Carey H. Brown, Mrs. George C. Minnigerode, for Mrs. Woodrow Wilson; Mrs. John C. Boyd, Mrs. James E. Freeman, Miss Helen Cummings, for Mrs. Mary Frederick E. Farrington, Mrs. Woolsey Aspinwall, Miss Ethel Bagley, Mrs. Thomas M. Chabard, Mrs. John A. Lefebvre, Mrs. J. H. Dayton, Mrs.
J. Mayhew Walnwright, Mrs. J. P.
Barney, Mrs. William B. Smong, Miss Louise King, Mrs. E. F. Andrews and Mrs. Minnigerode Andrews.

Costumes for the entire production are now being made at Mason House under the personal supervision of Miss Charlotte Gallor, who also designed all the costumes for 600 or more people in the cast of the pageant. Miss Gallor is the daughter of Bishop Gallor of Tennessee and has come to Washington to take charge of the pageant costumes.

Edgar Priest, organist and choirmaster of the cathedral, will direct the augmented vested choir of boys which is to sing the hymns and music.
Mr. Priest is being assisted by H.
Norman Taylor, Samuel Wood and Henry Hobart Tallmadge. The orchestra is being assembled and will be conducted by Francis Leigh, who is also selecting and arranging the instrumental music incidental to the scenes of the pageant.

GIVES TALK ON DRAMA.

Thomas Wood Stevens Deals With
"The Masque and the Pageant."

Thomas Wood Stevens gave the second of the drama talks at the Woman's National Foundation Friday evening, speaking on "The Masque and the Pageant," but dealing chiefly with the pageant which, he said, is of inestimable value in community life.
He cited the chronicle plays of Shakespeare's Henry V and Richard as the most perfect examples of pageantry ever produced, and said that the present-day productions do not even approach the pageants of the great dramatist.

He gave interesting details in connection with the historical pageant of St. Louis and of the forthcoming Virginia pageant at Richmond, closing with the reading of a scene, "The Starving Time in Jamestown Colony." Mr. Stevens was preceded on the program by Mrs. Minnigerode Andrews, who talked on the influence of the arts on the religious thought of the world, in connection with "The Cross Triumphant," the pageant of church history to be given at the Cathedral on May 5.

The third of the drama talks will be given next Friday, when the speaker will be Reginald Pole, who will speak on "Shakespeare in the Theater."

G. H. SLAYBAUGH RETIRED

Quits Government Post After Service of Forty-One Years.

George H. Slaybaugh, chief of the division of matters at coast guard headquarters, after forty-one years of continuous service, was retired yesterday, upon his own application.
Mr. Slaybaugh is a veteran of the civil war, having served in the Army from 1861 to 1865. He entered the Treasury Department in 1883, in the office of the former revenue cutter service, and has served continuously since.
Upon the occasion of his retirement he was presented with a memento as a token of esteem from his associates at the coast guard headquarters.

FOUR LOSE AUTO PERMITS FOR DRIVING INTOXICATED

Oyster Says Other Such Offenders

"Will Get All That's Coming to Them."

Four motorists had their permits to operate automobiles taken from them by the Commissioners yesterday following charges of driving while under the influence of liquor.

Commissioner Oyster, commenting upon the action, renewed his determination to put a stop to the dangerous practice of attempting to drive machines through the streets of the city while intoxicated.

Offenders of this type "will get all that is coming to them," in the words of the Commissioner, which means that they will see many fine hammer days come and go before they get their permits back.

Capt. Oyster believes it is difficult enough for a sober man to operate an automobile through crowded thoroughfares without accident, much less attempt to do so after having imbibed too heavily from a bootlegger's bottle.

FIRE STATIONS TO RECEIVE CLOTHING FOR NEAR EAST

Churches Also to Be Opened for

"Bundle Days" to Aid Suffering Refugees.

"Share Your Clothing" is the appeal of the near east relief committee, and Chairman Hugh A. Thurt reports the endorsement of Commissioner Oyster for the annual clothing campaign with the assignment by him of all engine and truck houses of the fire department as "receiving stations."

May 2 is the "bundle day" with the supplementary offerings May 3.
The following churches will also be open as receiving stations: Adventist Church, Takoma Park; Cleveland Park Congregational, 20th and Lovel; First Congregational, 10th and G streets; Fifth Street Presbyterian, 15th and Church; Foundry M. E., 16th and Church; Grace Reform, 15th and Church; Methodist west; Fourth Presbyterian, 13th and Fairmont streets, northwest; Pet-worth M. E., 8th and Shepherd streets, northwest; St. Margaret's P. E., Connecticut avenue and Bancroft place, and North Carolina avenue P. E., North Carolina avenue and 8th street, southeast.

Friends may also mail packages direct to near east relief warehouse, U. S. Army base, Brooklyn, N. Y., and receive a card in acknowledgment. The Boy Scouts will be organized to distribute literature by districts and will aid in the packing of the clothing. The committee's appeal states: "Search attics, trunks and closets to help save a homeless child or refugee now perishing from exposure! Don't send hats, slipper socks or thin materials, but anything warm or 'make-overable.' Tie all shoes in pairs. Put a can of condensed or evaporated milk in every bundle for some starving baby!"

Cash gifts may be sent to John B.
Larner, treasurer, 216 Bond Building.

Catering to the Kiddies —Our Wash Suit Department——gives practical service—

It isn't such an easy task to dress the youngsters from 2½ till they round their first decade.
They are difficult to fit—and still more difficult to design for becomingly.

But they've got a Shop here that's devoted to them exclusively—where you'll find the sum-total of good taste and good skill—in staples that never lose caste, and novelties that you've never seen before.

Regulation Middies—in White, with self and Navy collars; service stripes, emblems $5.00 and Black silk tie. Sizes 3 to 10 years.

All White Junior Suits—some with hemstitching; others with embroidered $3.95 Eton collars. Sizes 2½ to 6 years.

Designed for the tots—just getting into boyish togs from their cradle clothes. Sheer and dainty quality; White and combination effects; with a touch of nursery designing mingled with a bit of boyish tailoring. Novelties for $3.25 2½ to 6 year ages.

Linen-color Button-on and Middy Suits; with collars of Red, Blue, Green and self—and trimmed with braid. Sizes 3 to 10 $2.95 years.

Plain Blue Wash Suits—four different shades and at least seven different styles—Middies, Button-on and Balkan models. $1.95 Sizes 3 to 10 years.

We want to emphasize that the making of our Wash Suits is a model of completeness and orderliness.

With each of these Boys' Suits we give a Coaster—you know how the boys like them.
